Officer's Report:

Don Collins remarked that he is very impressed with all the changes that are taking place at the club and on the grounds.

Board of Director's Report:

Joe Daly invited everyone to take a look at the road to the 100 yd. line and the two permanent targets that were put up for general use.

Rifle and Pistol Club Report:

Joe Hiler said that outdoor pistol leagues are going well and that there are thirteen shooters participating in the eight week event.

Straightened Arrows Club Report:

Alan Hansford said that there were 60 shooters at their last shoot and that their leagues will be ending the 1st part of June.

Trap Shooting:

Steve Sondergaard said that there has been a good showing prior to the F&G meetings and there seems to be more people each month. He said a voice activated trap would be a big help.

ODNR:

Matt smith said that frog season has changed to June 11th @ 6:00 p.m.

TRCC : Steve Flory said that the outdoor expo went well with over 300 people attending. He said that they have gun tickets for sale and that they will be drawing this evening after everyone has a chance to purchase one.

Old Business

New Business:

Jerry Latta said that the different clubs should be thinking about getting volunteers around for kids day which is coming up in August.

Ralph Hahn said that if you want a ticket for the six gun raffle you had better get it soon because there are only seven left not counting those that are still out.

The business portion of the meeting adjourned @ 7:40 p.m.

Program:

Carrol Tille was present and gave a talk about pistol shooting. He demonstrated the proper way to hold a pistol, proper finger positioning, sight alignment and front sight attenuation. Carrol also talked about the common mistakes that people make and how they can effect where your bullet is going when you squeeze the trigger.
